

AMNS 106 Lord of beauty, thine the splendour

C. A. Alington
(1872-1955)

Melody: Regent Square

Henry Smart
(1813-1879)

1. Lord of beau - ty, thine the splen - dour shewn in earth and
2. Lord of wis - dom, whom o - bey - ing might - y wa - ters
3. Lord of life, a - lone sus - tain - ing all be - low and 4. Lord of beau - ty, bid us own thee, Lord of truth, our sky and sea, burn - ing sun and moon - light ten - der, ebb and flow, while un - hast - ing, un - de - lay - ing, all a - bove, Lord of love, by whose or - dain - ing foot - steps guide, till as Love our hearts en - throne thee, hill and riv - er, flow'r and tree: lest we fail our plan - ets on their cour - ses go: in thy laws thy - sun and stars sub - lime - ly move: in our earth - ly and, with vi - sion pu - ri - fied, Lord of all, when praise to ren - der touch our eyes that they may see. self dis - play - ing, teach our minds thy - self to know.

spi - rits reign - ing, lift our hearts that we may love.
all have known thee, thou in all art glo - ri - fied.